Ball Game at the Rennie Home.

Contributed
The ball game held at Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rennie's home was a great success. There were about fifteen present and all enjoyed themselves immensely. A very appetizing lunch was served later in the evening and it was decided not to organize a club till the next meeting, as the vice-president was ill and could not attend. The next game will be held at Mr. and Mrs. W. Dageford's home on Tuesday, May 26th, where plans will be made to organize. We would like to see more of our young athletes attending to help make the club a success.

this, future games should have more than the usual amount of interest for the home "rooters."

The two games already played were with Olds, who was defeated with a score of 18-8 on May 13, and Airdrie, on May 15, who was also beaten by Didsbury, score 13-4.

In future each game will commence at 6.15 sharp, and in the event a game has to be called on account of darkness, or on any other account, then the two umpires shall confer with one another about the same, and the game shall not be called until one inning later, when same shall be announced to the clubs and the fans that the game will only proceed for another full inning.

TENNIS CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

With a view to preparing for a successful season, a well-attended meeting of tennis enthusiasts was held on Thursday last in Dr. Evans' office.

The first business to arise was the election of officers, which resulted as follows—President, Dr. Evans; sec.-treas., J. Boorman; executive committee, Mrs. Austin, Miss Beveridge, Miss F. Reiber, and Messrs. R. A. Binns, B. L. Robinson, J. H. Lowrie and Clint Reiber.

The opinion was expressed that an effort should be made to increase the membership and a drive for members was decided upon.

The courts will be in shape to play within a few days.

Anyone desiring to join the above club will please see Mr. Boorman.

The membership fee is $2.00 for ladies $1.00 for gentlemen.

Johnny, Get Your Gun

An ultimatum announcing a declaration of war has been formally delivered by the Didsbury Game Protective Association, and a price has been set upon the head, no, the eggs—of any enemy found in the district. Skirmishing parties have already taken the warpath and are now searching the surrounding brush for signs of the invader.

Speaking or rather writing, more to the point under consideration, the above Association is now undertaking the task of trying to eliminate some of those pests which, to the farmer are more of an hindrance than a help. As briefly announced in these columns last week, twelve cents per dozen will be paid at the Hub Grocery store for Crows' and Magpies' eggs and while 20,000 has been set as a maximum, there practically is no limit to the number that can be brought in by an individual scout. Boys and girls thus who are now searching in addition to the momentary award, will have the assurance of accomplishing

Last year, it may be stated, 10,976 eggs were collected, in addition to 993 legs formally belonging to the Crow and Magpie tribes. The association was also successful in winning the provincial prize of $200, an event that was widely advertised and resulted in congratulation being received from various sources, including a letter of appreciation from Rad and Gun.

Alberta's total bag last year was 107,116 Crow and Magpie eggs. There were also destroyed 11,652 Crows and Magpies and 220,959 gophers.

The association, with a view to increasing its activities and consequent usefulness, is endeavouring to secure additional support from the municipalities and will offer prizes this year amounting in the aggregate to fifty dollars.

CAPTAIN BLOOD

RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini.
"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan
in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XX.

Hostages

Peter Blood made his way through the house to the wide piazza behind it, in whose shade were Colonel Bishop and my Lord Julian Wade.

"I have sent for you, Captain Blood, because of certain news that has reached me," the Deputy Governor said. "I am informed that yesterday evening a frigate left the harbor having on board your associate Wolverstone and a hundred men of the hundred and fifty that were serving under you. His lordship and I shall be glad to have your explanation of how you came to permit that departure."

"Permit?" quoth Blood. "I ordered it."

"Swords! Whither has Wolverstone gone?"

"To Tortuga. He's gone with a message to the officers commanding the other four ships of the fleet that is awaiting me there, telling them what's happened and why they are no longer to expect me."

"You hear that, my lord? Deliberately he has let Wolverstone loose upon the seas again—Wolverstone, the worst of all that gang of pirates after himself. It's treason! It's matter for a court-martial."

"Will you cease your blather of treason and courts-martial?" Blood put on his hat, and sat down unbidden. "I have sent Wolverstone to inform Hagthorpe and Christian and Yberville and the rest of my lads to quit piracy or sail out of the Caribbean Sea. That's what I've done."

Colonel Bishop bellowed his protest, but Lord Julian was more conciliatory.

"It is possible," Lord Julian admitted, "that my Lord Sunderland will be satisfied, provided that the solution is as you promise. Speaking on behalf of my Lord Sunderland, I am content to await the result of your experiment."

"Are you, indeed?" Bishop roared.

"Well, then, I am not."

"Then I'll be wishing ye both a very good day." Blood swept off his feathered hat, and made them a leg very elegantly.

"Before you go," said Bishop, "and to save you from any idle rashness, I'll tell you that the Harbor-Master and the Commandant have their orders. You don't leave Port Royal, my fine gallows bird. Damme, I mean to provide you with permanent moorings here, in Execution Dock. You do not leave this house. He took a step in the direction of the doorway, and raised his voice. "Ho there . . ." he was beginning to call.

Captain Blood's right hand had re-emerged from the breast of his doublet, let, bringing with it a long pistol with silver mountings richly chased, which he leveled within a foot of the Deputy-Governor's head.

"Don't stir from where you are, my lord, or there may be an accident."

And my lord, who had been moving to Bishop's assistance, stood instantly arrested. The Deputy-Governor was swaying on unsteady legs. Peter Blood considered him with a grimness that increased his panic.

"I marvel that I don't pistol you without more ado, ye fat blackguard. Be good enough to give me your arm, Colonel Bishop. Come, come, man, your arm."

Bishop obeyed. Captain Blood tucked his left arm through the Deputy-Governor's proffered right. Then he thrust his own right hand with its pistol back into the breast of his doublet.

"Now write unless you prefer the yard-arm."

"Though invisible, it's aiming at ye none the less, and I give you my word of honor that I'll shoot ye dead upon the very least provocation, whether that provocation is yours or another's. And now, ye greasy hangman, step out as brisk and lively as ye can, and behave as naturally as ye may, or it's the black stream of Coeytus ye'll be contemplating." Arm in arm, they passed through the house and down the garden, where Arabella lingered, awaiting Peter Blood's return. She was convinced now that she had done him a monstrous injustice, therefore she lingered there in the garden, awaiting his return that she might make amends. And when at last he came, it was in company—unusually close and intimate company—with her uncle. In vexation she realized that explanations must be postponed.

He passed, with his companion, from that fragrant garden into the courtyard of the fort. Here the Commandant, who had been instructed to hold himself in readiness with the necessary men against the need to effect the arrest of Captain Blood, was amazed by the curious spectacle of the Deputy-Governor of Jamaica strolling forth arm in arm and apparently on the friendliest terms with the intended prisoner. For as they went, Blood was chatting and laughing briskly.

They passed out of the gates unchallenged, and so came to the mole where the cock-boat from the Arabella was waiting. They took their places side by side in the stern sheets, and were pulled away together, always very close and friendly, to the great red ship where Jeremy Pitt so anxiously awaited news.

Colonel Bishop stood in the waist, his great face blanched to the color of clay, his mouth loose, almost afraid to look at the sturdy ruffians who lounged about the shot-rack on the main hatch.

"Now, don't be alarming yourself, Colonel, darling," Blood said. "We'll talk the matter over while we are dining, for I trust ye'll not refuse to honor my table by your company."

He led away the will-less, cowed bull to the great cabin.

"May I ask what . . . what are your intentions?" Bishop quavered.

"Ye've said his lordship made a mistake when he handed me the commission which the Secretary of State did me the honor to design for me. I'm disposed to agree with you; so I'll take to the sea again. I'll be getting back to Tortuga and my buccaneers."

"My God!" groaned the Deputy-Governor. "Ye . . . ye never mean that ye'll carry me to Tortuga!"

"No, no. All I want is that ye insure my safe departure from Port Royal. Ye've given certain orders to your Harbor-Master, and others to the Commandant of your plaguey fort. Ye'll be so good as to send for them both aboard here, and inform them in my presence that the Arabella is leaving this afternoon on the King's service and is to pass out unmolested. And so as to make quite sure of their obedience, they shall go a little voyage with us, themselves. Here's what you require. Now write—unless you prefer the yard-arm."

Bishop glared at him; then shrugging heavily, he took up the pen and sat down at the table. In an unsteady hand he wrote that summons to his officers. Blood dispatched it ashore; and then bade his unwilling guest to table.

"I trust, Colonel, your appetite is as stout as usual."

The Captain fell to with a good appetite. But before he was midway through the meal came Hayton to inform him that Lord Julian Wade had just come aboard, and was asking to see him instantly.

"I was expecting him," said Blood. "Fetch him in."

Blood signaled to the servant, who was standing behind Bishop.

"Set a chair for his lordship, Hayton, send his lordship's boat ashore. Tell them he'll not be returning yet awhile."

"What's that?" cried his lordship.

"Blister me! D'ye mean to detain me?"

"Just to make myself and my lads here safe from Colonel Bishop's gallows. There's a note from his hand gone ashore to summon the Harbor-Master and the Commandant of the fort. Once they are aboard, I shall have all the hostages I need for our safety."

"You fool," his lordship said. "Do you dream that I came aboard your pirate ship without taking my measures? I informed the Commandant of exactly how you had compelled Colonel Bishop to accompany you. Judge now whether he or the Harbor-Master will obey the summons, or whether you will be allowed to depart as you imagine."

"I'm sorry for that," said Blood. "But not on my own account. It's the Deputy-Governor there I'm sorry for. D'ye know what ye've done? Sure, now, ye've very likely hanged him."

"My God!" cried Bishop in a sudden increase of panic.

Has Had Romantic Career

W. H. Nursey at Eighty is Writing Autobiography

Walter H. Nursey, who has just passed the eightieth milestone of his romantic and checkered career, and who is known from ocean to ocean in Canada, is now completing an autobiography called "The Vicissitudes of a Vagrant."

Few men have had so unusual a career as Nursey. He was in India and China before coming to Canada at the age of 20. He farmed near Hamilton, and was a banker in Toronto. He roamed the plains with the bison, portaged the rapids of the Mackenzie with the early fur traders, was deputy minister of agriculture in the first Manitoba Government, mixed in Mexican and Hawaiian revolutions, has written books and edited newspapers, has been publisher, manufacturer and company promoter, and was a friend of Sir William Van Horne, Lord Strathcona and Lord Dufferin.

Nursey has just recovered from a severe illness. "When I look back over my life, the sights and sounds of a trail breaker are vivid in my memory, the gray dawn breaking in camps on the northern trails, the crunch of heels in the snow, and the yelps of huskies harnessed once more to the sled. I'd like to be young again, just to live my life over."

BEST MEDICINE

SHE EVER USED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Highly Praised by a Nova Scotia Lady

Among the well known and esteemed residents of Hantsport, N.S., is Mrs. Amanda Woodworth. Some four years ago Mrs. Woodworth had the misfortune to lose her husband, and as a result of caring for him during his illness, she became terribly run-down. Mrs. Woodworth says she felt as though her blood had turned to water. The least exertion would leave her tired and breathless. She was often attacked by spells of weakness that left her almost speechless, and frequently suffered from severe headaches. The medicines she took did not help her and she almost despaired of gaining her health. In this condition she one day read in a newspaper of a case very similar to her own, in which health was restored through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This made her decide to give these pills a trial. After using a few boxes she found the pills were helping her, and she continued their use until her old-time health and vitality were restored. Now Mrs. Woodworth looks after a small farm of fifteen acres, besides doing all her housework, and says she never felt better or more energetic in her life. She gives credit for her present splendid health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which she says are the best medicine she ever used, and strongly recommends the pills to all run-down people.

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why He Chose Canada

Englishman Thought What Suited Prince Was Good Enough For Him

"What was good enough for the Prince of Wales is good enough for me," was the principle that guided W. W. Hubbell, late of Staffordshire, England, in choosing Canada as the future home for himself and family.

"Yes," said Mr. Hubbell, "when a man like the Prince of Wales, who has travelled all over the world, buys a ranch in Alberta, it means that he has found Canada to be a pretty good country." The Hubbells, however, will take up farming in Manitoba.

Mrs. Hubbell also was questioned as to why Canada was selected. "Well," she said, "I had a great-uncle out here who lived to be 113 years old. I concluded it must be a healthy country, even though it does get cold at times."

Snakes In Ireland

Small Serpent is Found in the Vicinity Of Dublin

Notwithstanding the legend that St. Patrick banished all the snakes from Ireland, one has been discovered in Dublin, and is now on exhibition in the national museum. It is a very small specimen, less than two feet long, and of the harmless variety. News of the find caused much comment in the press.

Snakes have occasionally been brought into Ireland from overseas, but they have never known to breed there.

Royal Pair Visited Tutankhamen's Tomb

Duke and Duchess of York Took Arduous Journey Across Desert

The Duchess of York, it is said, is thinking of publishing in book form the diary which she has kept of her big game hunting trip to Kenya. Few details of the tour have been made public, but those in the know in Nairobi say that the royal pair had some remarkable escapes from the lions, elephants and buffalo. On their way from Khartum to Cairo the Duke and Duchess made a detour to the Valley of Kings to see Tutankhamen's tomb, travelling part of the way by car and the rest on donkey-back across the desert—a somewhat arduous journey. Several times the royal couple were carried over swamps and rivers pickaback by natives.

British Suffered Most From War

And No Nation Has Made More Sacrifices For Peace

So far as Great Britain is concerned, she has already disarmed. She has drastically cut down her army. Her air force is but the shadow of the great organization which it was at the close of the war, when it was superior in strength and efficiency to that of any other nation. The British navy now takes second place in the world, whether in point of numbers or of new ships. . . . No people in the world have made such sacrifices for peace; perhaps, also, no people in the world, not even our Allies, the French, have suffered so much from war.—London Daily Mail.

For seven or eight years I have had headaches, tired feelings, pains in my back and across my body. I read letters in the newspapers saying what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done others. My husband says I quit too soon, but I am not going to stop taking the Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine until I am better and haven't an ache or a pain. Isn't that the right way? I have great faith in your medicines. ## Canada Leads the Way

In Opening Doors of Britain For Import of All Cattle

Canada, having gained in 1922 an entry into the United Kingdom for her store cattle, has been insistent for the wider opening of the door to include pedigree stock. It can scarcely be imagined that the old-established herds of Scotland and England will draw an infusion of blood from the folds or the herds of younger Canada; what is more apparent in the insistence of the western dominion is to drive the thin edge of the wedge for a wide open door at all the ports of Britain for the landing of all classes of cattle—store, fat and pedigree. Pressure in that direction is not without its bearing on the cattle future of South Africa or Rhodesia. It would mean that when the day arrives for the export of store cattle from these shores they would, if accompanied by the necessary evidence of clean health, have admittance to the live cattle markets of Britain.—Bulawayo Chronicle.

Golden Text: I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. I. Corinthians 2:2.

Devotional Reading: Joshua 1:1-9.

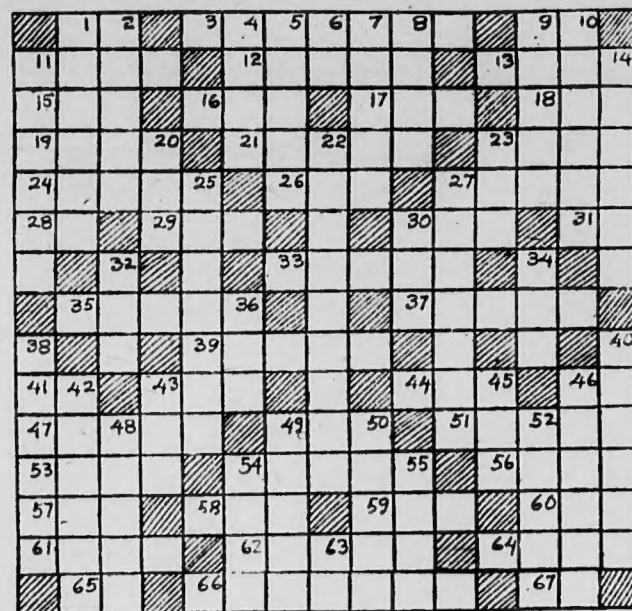

The Text Explained and Illumined
I. Paul Proclaims Christ at Damascus, verses 20-22. Upon his return from Arabia (see The Historical Background), Paul joined the circle of disciples at Damascus and proclaimed Jesus to be the Son of God. His bold preaching greatly amazed the Jewish authorities, who knew what his course had been at Jerusalem and what his purpose had been in coming to Damascus. But Paul's power as a preacher for Christ increased, and he confounded the Jews, proving that this is the Christ. "The somewhat unusual Greek word for proving means literally putting together, and so is used for the putting together of arguments."

II. Paul's Escape From His Enemies at Damascus, verses 23-25. The defeated Jews plotted to kill Paul, and this became known to him. Learning that the Jews were keeping watch day and night at the city gates to prevent Paul from leaving the city alive, the Christian disciples lowered him in a basket over the city wall, letting the basket down from the window of a house built either against the wall or top of the wall. In somewhat similar fashion the spies escaped from Jericho, Joshua 2:15.

Somewhere from out of the past comes a voice reminding us that "he who makes two blades of grass grow where but one grew before deserves well of mankind."

Our city fathers, therefore, should receive credit for their decision to cultivate the C.P.R. park with the ultimate idea of beautifying it with trees. Wherever there is a tree planted an added attractiveness to the town itself is the result, and in Didsbury, where it is comparatively easy to cultivate and grow trees, every resident should make it a point of local pride to improve his surroundings in this way.

The many beautiful and home-like structures in our residential district have been added to a hundred fold by the carefully trimmed hedge and the introduction of the poplar and the fir, all of which are doing splendid wherever they receive a reasonable amount of attention.

May the good work go on,

As Told in the Rotunda of the Rosebud.

Entering into casual conversation with one of our citizens the other day, a discussion arose relative to the high winds experienced in some portions of this western country. The editor has resided in Southern Alberta for a good many years and has not only experienced, but has seen the result of wind storms on the country, a result that is not always satisfactory to the farmer or anyone else.

"Yes," said our resident, "you have wind storms down there, right enough, but for the real Simon-pure article you've got to hand it to the state of Kansas."

One summer when I was working my way across the country I hired out for a week with a farmer near Topeka. He had a big field of pop-corn just about ready to pick. One of those Kansas cyclones came up and blew all the corn off the ears. Fortunately, or perhaps I should say unfortunately, the kernels were blown directly towards the barn.

"Through every knot hole in the barn the corn was forced by the wind at such a speed that the friction developed an intense heat and the hay in the barn caught fire. This caused the pop-corn to pop and to fly high in the air."

"The cattle in the yard thought it was snowing, and promptly lay down and froze to death."

Rugby W.I.

Rugby W.I. met at the home of Mrs. A. Wahl on May 7th, a large number of members and visitors being present, considering the busy time of year. The meeting was opened by singing "The Maple Leaf for ever," roll call, followed by Favorite Medicine for Children. The business part consisted mostly of electing a delegate for convention at Edmonton. A round table discussion was then opened for a short period of time on "Bread," after which Mrs. C. Young gave a splendid and very interesting paper on "Child welfare and public health." Meeting was then closed by singing "God Save our King," after which a dainty lunch was served.

Rugby W.I. next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Young, June 4th.

Burnside

A Correction

In last week's issue, in Burnside items, the date was given incorrectly for next W.C.T.U. meeting at Mrs. George Burns. The date given for meeting was June 3rd, not June 23rd as published.

Support the Pool Movement

Support the boards of trade and the various service clubs in the cities and towns and the agricultural societies in the drive to secure memberships for the new provincial dairy, livestock and poultry pools, is being asked by the joint organization committee of the pools, of which A. B. Claypool, M. L. A. is chairman. Letters were dispatched to all these organizations during the past week, reach their objective when the concentrated drive takes place during the three weeks from June 8th to 28th. It is felt that the business organizations will gladly support the pool movement as one essential in making Alberta a more attractive place for incoming settlers, as well as improving the conditions of these already on the land.

The directors of the Wheat pool, the members of the provincial legislature, the directors of the U. F. A. and of the U. F. W. A. are all to be asked to assist in the drive for memberships. The organization committee is relying upon the U. F. A. and U. F. W. A.

locals to prosecute the work of canvassing the various districts.

With the arrival of 500 Holsteins, soliciting whatever support and assistance their members might be able to give in aiding the pools to steins at Merchand, Manitoba, last week over Canadian National lines, a practical start has been made with the big dairy proposition of the Manitoba Dairy farms, Limited. The cows were purchased in Quebec by Prof. Crane, formerly of Idaho, who is in charge of the enterprise. Several families have been placed on the land there and twenty-five from Denmark are on the way. It is expected that the number will be considerably increased in a short time and considerable business this summer is anticipated.

Where Ardent Anglers Seek Quebec's Fishing

VAL MORIN BROOK TROUT, TWO FEET LONG

ON A LAURENTIAN LAKE, IN QUEBEC

An army of anglers is preparing for the annual fishing expeditions to the province of Quebec, where innumerable rivers, streams and brooks, as well as lakes of every size and shape, are the habitat of many game fish. Once a Quebec fisherman, always a Quebec fisherman. The opening day for the pursuit of this sport is May 1st, and a week earlier the sportsmen started their northward trek to be the first one to land a trophy.

Brook trout are particularly desired and the fisherman who hooks a large one of this fighting species, is indeed a proud person. There are numerous waters that yield brook trout generously, especially along the 160 miles of the Mont Laurier branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway that runs northwest of Montreal into the Laurentian Mountains.

Trout can be taken from the pools of streams on either side of the railway all the way from St. Jerome to Mont Laurier at the end of steel, and if one is an adventurous sportsman, he will delve into the wild woods and waters beyond, for the natives are enthusiastic as to Lake Dumouchel, 3 miles to the north, famous for its red trout; Lake Thibault, 8 miles east, that offers good pike fishing; Lac des Ecorces, which is 4 miles south, with one hotel and two fishing clubs, whose guests enjoy good sport catching pike, dore and "whitefish", as locally termed. Lac des Isles, seven miles south of Mont Laurier, is a charming summer resort. This lake is 30 miles in circumference and contains 27 islands, many of them bearing cottages. It is noted for its beautiful scenery and the large trout that inhabit it.

There are 27 stations between St. Jerome and Mont Laurier, and a stop-off at nearly any one of them leads to excellent fishing grounds. Some of the most popular points are St. Faustin with its surrounding waters; St. Jovite, with the popular Grey Rocks Inn overlooking Lac Outmet, where red trout are found, and numerous adjacent waters yield various species of the finny tribes. It is but a two-mile ride from Lac Merciere station to Mont Tremblant, the highest peak in the Laurentians, and the lake of the same name, which is 10 miles long and noted for its big fish. Gray, or lake trout, up to 20 lbs. are common.

Several fishermen's hotels provide accommodations for visitors, and Grey Rocks Inn maintains a comfortable lodge for about 15 guests here. Lake Cochrane, a 15 minute walk from the shore of Lac Mercier, opposite the station, is noted for its fine mixed fishing.

Labels, at the 100 mile station, is the centre of a maze of streams and lakes that afford exceptionally good trout fishing, while 28 miles further on, is Nominigoue, with its big and little lakes of the same name. Monster pike weighing up to 58 lbs. are caught here. At varying distances from these lakes are located six fishing clubs.

Every stop along the line provides accommodations at reasonable rates for visiting fishermen.

The Value Of Good Roads

It has been said, and unquestionably truthfully said, that the world has made greater material progress in the last one hundred years than in the preceding one thousand years. The last half of the nineteenth century and the first quarter of the present century has worked a veritable revolution in the lives of people in all civilized countries as a result of the marvellous discoveries and inventions which have marked this period. Advancements made in methods of transportation, in means of communication, in the science of medicine, in systems of education, in forms of entertainments are so manifold and far-reaching that lengthy articles of a most interesting character could be written with reference to each of them.

Each new discovery and invention now has an almost immediate effect in relegating the product of a preceding discovery to the scrapheap. In former times it took a long time for a new discovery to find ready acceptance by the people as a whole, and more often than not the inventor was a man without honor or recognition by his own generation. In this age, however, new discoveries and inventions are accepted and adopted with unprecedented rapidity, regardless of the effect their adoption may have upon existing customs and organizations, and despite the fact that their adoption means "scrapping" millions of dollars worth of articles and equipment now in use.

It is only necessary to point to the almost universal adoption of the automobile in the short space of two decades, and the even more amazing development of radio since the close of the Great War. The effect of one new industry on an older one is shown in the almost complete abandonment of the manufacture of carriages and buggies since the automobile came to the fore, while the popularity of radio has played havoc with the manufacture and sale of phonographs and by bringing lectures, concerts and entertainment of various kinds right into the home, is having a direct effect on attendance at and the financial success of popular forms of entertainment, albeit it has had the effect of enormously widening the circle of people who can enjoy these things.

The automobile is rapidly forcing another development which is having, and is bound to have, an ever increasing influence in our modern life. This is the construction of good permanent roads. No longer is a community willing to put up with poor, ungraded highways. The automobile has taught people that a poor road is a far greater expense than is the cost of a good one. Today bad roads are the accepted sign of an unprogressive, backward community.

The creation of a comprehensive system of good roads, while not in itself spectacular, has a profound influence on the life of any province or country. Combined with the ease of transportation which the automobile provides, such roads encourage travel within one's own country, thus extending knowledge and exerting a broadening influence leading to a removal of insular prejudices. Such roads are a big factor in reducing the cost of moving the products of the farm to market centres, whether moved by horse drawn or motor driven vehicle.

The development of good roads in Canada is not only enabling Canadians to become better acquainted with their own country, but such development is year by year attracting an ever increasing number of tourists from the United States. The number of touring parties in 1924 was fifty per cent. greater than during the preceding year, and it is conservatively estimated that these United States tourists expended no less than one hundred million dollars while in the Dominion, a sum which certainly yields a handsome return on the money invested in these roads.

Canada, with its wonderful scenic attractions, its bracing northern air and fine summer weather will more and more prove an attraction to the people of the United States in their desire to enjoy a real holiday away from the heat and congestion of their large cities. The automobiles makes it possible for whole families and tourist groups to come at less expense than is involved for a number of people in railway transportation, and they can enjoy liberty of movement which is not possible by rail.

All that is necessary to enormously increase this tourist traffic is better roads and more of them. The initial cost of such highways is high, but that they are paying investments, not only in reduced costs of haulage for our own people, but through the expenditures made by tourists, is being demonstrated wherever such good road systems have been created.

Radio Sets For Arctic

Seaplanes of Macmillan Expedition Are Well Equipped

Two different radio sets designed to cover all possible contingencies will be used by the seaplanes of the Macmillan Arctic expedition this summer.

One of the planes will carry a standard navy aircraft spark set and the other a short wave radio set, with which remarkable long distance results already have been attained.

The Thetis, base ship of the expedition, will be equipped with two five kilowatt transmitting sets. Through this combination the expedition expects to be able to keep in touch directly with points in Canada and the United States.

Timber Trade In B.C.

British Columbia continues its rapid rate of expansion in the timber trade, according to returns completed by the minister of lands. ### Try Out Amphibian Plane

Results of Test in U.S. Are Entirely Satisfactory

An amphibian aeroplane designed by Captain Charles Nungesser, French war ace, for wealthy commuters who prefer the freedom of the air to crowded automobile roads, has been tested in U.S.A. The results of the test were said to have been entirely satisfactory.

The plane has a land chassis which can be drawn up when the landing is made on water. It carries three passengers and a pilot, has a cruising speed of 73 miles an hour and a cruising radius of 300 miles.

B.C. Lumber Shipments

Lumber exports from British Columbia during the month of March aggregated 28,177,000 board feet, more than half going into the Orient and the balance divided between the Atlantic seaboard, United Kingdom and continent, Egypt and the Antipodes. So far this year the port has moved over 70,000,000 board feet.

Synthetic Food

Time May Come When Food Will Be Produced By Laboratory Methods

A new era in the history of mankind, when human beings will subsist entirely on food produced synthetically, is forecast by U.S. Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, following a successful experiment by chemicals in which sugar was made by passing light rays through formaldehyde.

If sugar can be made synthetically then starch and numerous other foods probably can be produced through the same chemical process, Hoover declared. He described the sugar producing experiment as the greatest chemical discovery of the last fifty years, because of the new fields which it opens up and of the possibilities which it holds.

Scientists see the time coming, when through the increase of population, it will be necessary for man to get at least a part of his food through such laboratory production.

MOTHERS PRAISE BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. L. M. Brown, Walton, N.S., says: "I cannot recommend Baby's Own Tablets too highly. I have found them invaluable for the ailments of little ones." Mrs. Brown's testimony is the same as that of thousands of other mothers who have used the Tablets. To use them once is a sure guarantee that they will always be kept in the home as long as there are babies or young children to be cared for. The Tablets are a laxative—mild but thorough in action—which never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels; relieve constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the dreaded teething period easy. In fact they banish all the minor ills from which little ones suffer. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Several portions of his large estates in East Sussex have been sold by the Duke of Devonshire. He is selling the historic Benedictine Priory at Wilmington, which was founded in the reign of King Rufus. Taxation has made the holding of vast estates quite impossible for Englishmen of even the greatest wealth.—Ottawa Journal.

Another Triumph For Prince

Has Tightened Empire Bonds By Gaining Good Will of Dutch

The unexpected warmth and enthusiasm with which the Prince of Wales has been greeted in the Dutch strongholds of South Africa as well as in the British centres is delighting both political and social circles at home.

Unquestionably the Prince has scored the greatest personal triumph of his triumphant career as imperial ambassador. The timeliness of his visit, the skill of his personal diplomacy and the charm of his manner, have combined to make this trip one of the happiest moves in many years for the strengthening of the bonds of the empire. Official circles in London do not attempt to conceal their satisfaction and credit the recent decision of the South African Government to give Great Britain most favored nation treatment of the new tariff schemes to the better atmosphere produced by the presence of the Prince. There is not a dissenting note in the reports from South Africa, both press and official, with regard to the outstanding success of the tour.

Starts Trip Around World Without Money

Man, 35, Hopes Book Describing Travels Will Pay For Law Course

"King" Cole (named Samuel H. Cole when he came into the world at Hagerstown, Md., thirty-five years ago) recently started a penniless journey around the world, his goal being a Cornell University law degree at the age of 42.

Starting life as a newsboy, he became popularly known as "king of the American newsboys," and still returns sporadically to the profession of his youth. Since then, however, he has seen many of the sights and conversed with many of the famous men of the world. Just now his ambition is a law course as a special student in Cornell University. Hence the globe circling journey without cash, which is to furnish material for a book, to be dedicated to Cornell, and which he expects to furnish the wherewithal for his law education.

Worms are encouraged by morbid conditions of the stomach and bowels, and so subside. Miller's Worm Powders will alter these conditions almost immediately and will sweep the worms away. No destructive parasite can live in contact with this medicine, which is not only a worm destroyer, but a health-giving medicine most beneficial to the young constitution.

Guards Radium Carefully

No Chance For Theft From Prague Radiological Institute

Great ingenuity has been displayed by the Prague Radiological Institute in protecting the radium in its possession, and the methods are regarded as so complete that the kindly old professor responsible for the safety of the treasure has no fear of burglars.

The priceless substance, first of all, is stored in tiny stoppered phials, and these in a larger glass container completely sealed by fusing the orifice. Next comes a thick-sided lead box, which is carefully locked up in a modern indestructible safe. All around the safe, a few inches apart, hang loose chains, making it impossible for anyone even to approach the safe without moving them. The slightest movement of a chain rings an alarm bell in the watchman's quarters.

Pilgrim Bell Again Heard
The large pilgrim bell of the Basilica of St. Anne de Beaupre, which fell from its belfry in the fire of 1921, and was damaged, was heard May 2 for the first time since it was mended. The bell was recently returned from Belgium, where it was repaired.

Young Mother Regains Health

And Now Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills to all Similar Sufferers

Mrs. Wm. Maddix suffered from a weak back. St. Gilbert, P.E.I.—(Special).—"I am the mother of three children and after the birth of the eldest my back was very weak," states Mrs. Maddix, a well known resident of this place. "Later it became very painful, until last winter it got so bad that I could hardly stand. I then took four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills which completely relieved me. I have great confidence in them and recommend them to all my friends."

Mrs. Maddix's trouble came from the kidneys as is evidenced by the relief she got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. When the kidneys become clogged or out of order, the circulation becomes sluggish, the impurities are not strained out of the blood and the result is weariness and lack of energy all over the body. This condition is not only disagreeable but dangerous as well. The impurities in the blood are the seeds of disease.

Because homes in Hungary contain little, if any, wood, the danger from crossed electric wires is so small that insurance companies do not inspect wiring.

Useful in Camp.—Explorers, surveyors, prospectors and hunters will find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil very useful in camp. When the feet and legs are wet and cold it is well to rub them freely with the Oil and the result will be the prevention of pains in the muscles, and should a cut, or contusion, or sprain be sustained, nothing could be better as a dressing or lotion.

Mayo Calls Gland Treatment Humbug

Transplantation of monkey and other glands in the human body was disclaimed of any value by Dr. William J. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., in addressing the congress of American Physicians and Surgeons at Washington. The public had been "humbugged" with impossible claims, he said.

CONTINUE WORK OF ASSISTING ARMY VETERANS

Ottawa.—Some interesting figures on the cost of soldiers' re-establishment have been submitted to the house. Not including the cost of administration, the department last year disbursed $49,056,179 for pensions and re-establishment of veterans of the Great War. The cost of administration was $2,485,645, or about 4.8 per cent. of the total disbursements.

In answer to suggestions that the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment should be abolished, Hon. H. S. Beaud told the house there was no hope that the machinery of the department could soon be dispensed with.

For many years the payment of pensions, Canadian and Imperial, the providing of treatment, the supply of artificial limbs, and all other services handled by the department, must go on. Personally, said Dr. Beaud, he was not anxious to remain as minister of the department one moment longer than was required by the department.

U.S. Border Officers Increase Outposts

Making Effort to Halt Unlawful Entry Of Aliens

Minot, N.D.—Immigration forces operating along the international boundary line have increased their outposts considerably within the last few days in a determined effort to halt the unlawful entrance of aliens into this country from Canada, according to F. A. Winsor, of Portal, N.D., inspector in charge of patrol, who is in Minot.

Not in many months, according to the official, have there been so many foreigners attempting or planning to make unlawful entrance into this country. However, with additional patrolmen available, and every foot of the border now covered by experienced men, it is believed the situation is well under control.

Business For Merchant Marine

Urges Policy to Secure an Increased Chilled Meat Trade

Ottawa.—In the course of the examination of the annual report of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine by the House of Commons committee on railways and shipping, Sir Henry Drayton strongly urged the merchant marine management to undertake a policy to secure an increased chilled meat trade. New Zealand, he said, was carrying to Britain at the same rate used by Canadian lines because they were contracting for maximum loadings.

McIntosh, a Canadian and a graduate of McMaster University, Toronto, has been awarded the Bross prize of $5,000, which is given once in five years by the Lake Forest University of Chicago for the best theological works. ## U.S. Would Limit Spread In Grain Quotations

Washington.—Adoption of rules by the grain-exchange limiting the spread in daily quotations was recommended by Secretary Jardine as a means of preventing unreasonable fluctuations and manipulation of grain prices. The recommendations were contained in a report on the preliminary investigation by the department of agriculture, under the Grain Futures Act, of the sharp fluctuation in future grain quotations on the Chicago board of trade, beginning in January.

Suggested Relief For Unemployment

Britain Should Co-operate With Dominions For Railroad Orders

London.—That the British Government should co-operate with the overseas dominions to assure a regular flow of orders for bridges, steel rails and all kinds of heavy engineering equipment for railroads, in order to relieve the grave unemployment existing in English and Scottish yards, was the proposal made to Premier Stanley Baldwin at a conference with J. T. Brownlie, president of the Amalgamated Engineering Union, which seems likely to be adopted.

The state is ready to give support to any practical scheme for the relief of this unemployment, said Mr. Baldwin, and the idea that the government should co-operate financially with the dominions, while at the same time giving some form of limited subsidy to idle traders here in an effort to stimulate empire development, is warmly received.

Saskatchewan Wheat Pool

Big Membership Campaign Is Planned To Commence Shortly

Regina, Sask.—Dwarfing any previous similar efforts, the management of the Saskatchewan wheat pool, immediately the provincial elections are over, will start a province-wide movement to obtain 2,000,000 additional acres under contract. Organization work for the effort has already been started at the head office in Regina. At the same time it will attempt to obtain the necessary percentage of acreage for the coarse grain pool, which will operate for the first time this year. The initial move for coarse grain acreage is the mailing of the contracts to all wheat pool holders.

Anti-Soviet Chief Ends Life

Denied Release From Prison Throws Himself From Cell Window

Moscow.—Notified recently that there was little chance of his liberation, General Boris Savinkoff, notorious anti-Bolshevik leader, has committed suicide by throwing himself from the window of his cell. He was serving a long term on a multitude of charges growing out of his seven years' struggle against the Soviet regime.

His trial, on August 28, 1924, at which there was neither prosecution nor defence, constituted probably the most dramatic case that ever came before the revolutionary war tribunal.

Jellicoe Made Chairman

London.—Viscount Jellicoe, former naval commander and former Governor-General of New Zealand, has accepted the chairmanship of the council of overseas settlement. The council was recently formed under the auspices of the Church of England for the dissemination of information with regard to openings for settlers overseas and for the purpose of looking after the selection and welfare of emigrants.

Colonial Office In Britain

London.—The Morning Post, dealing with the proposed re-organization of the colonial office, says it doubts if the word "colonial," in connection with the office, really offends the susceptibilities of the overseas dominions.

"This agitation about a mere name seems puerile and shallow," the Post adds.

Senate Vacancies

Government Awaiting Outcome of Proposed Provincial Convention

Ottawa.—The possibility that the proposed inter-provincial conference on senate reform might result in a reduction in the membership of the senate was suggested in the upper chamber as a reason for the delay in filling the seven vacant seats in the senate.

Answering, Raoul Dandurand, government leader, said that his impression was that the government had not filled the vacancies because it was awaiting the outcome of the proposed provincial convention on the senate.

Senator Loughheed added that perhaps the approaching general election might have something to do with the delay.

Creamery Plant For Bulyea

Canadian Chief Of Staff Sees Danger Of War

Ottawa.—Addressing a military gathering here, General J. H. MacBrien, Canadian chief of staff, said extolling peace would not prevent war. "No thinking man can read the daily papers, make an examination of the frontiers in Europe, read of the trade rivalry between the United States and Japan, realize the huge importance placed by commercial countries on control over such strategic positions as the Suez Canal and the Straits of Gibraltar, without coming to the conclusion that, sooner or later, there must be grave danger of war," the general said.

Industrial Disputes Act

Amended Act Passes House of Commons

Ottawa.—With three changes, the bill to amend the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act (commonly known as the Lemieux Act) went through all stages in the house. The bill was made necessary by the decision of the privy council which found the existing I.D.I. Act ultra vires, in that it encroached on provincial jurisdiction. The purpose of the bill, generally speaking, is to limit the application of the act to matters not within the legislative jurisdiction of any province. There is a further provision to take advantage of the provisions of the Dominion act should it so desire.

New Equipment For C.N.R.

Briand's Reply To Germany Courteous

British Foreign Office Received Copy Of Security Pact Proposal

Paris.—Foreign Minister Briand sent to the British foreign office at London, a copy of his reply to Germany, regarding the German security pact proposal. London.—The Daily Chronicle says the police are taking strong measures against the Bolsheviks in London. The permits of numerous persons to remain in England have been cancelled and the renewal of others refused, the number thus dealt with mounting into the hundreds.

Quantities of literature also have been seized. In consequence of these measures, the paper declares, the Bolshevik bookshop here, where the newspaper Pravda, the Izvestia, and other publications were sold, has been closed, and the official Bolshevik paper in England, the Soviet Union Review, has ceased publication.

The staffs of the Russian commercial establishments are being greatly reduced, says the Chronicle, but it is unaware whether this is due to the police campaign or merely to economy.

Declares Canada Is Interpreter Of Ideals

President of Toronto University Delivers Address in London

London.—Canada's position as the interpreter of ideals between the two great English-speaking nations, Britain and the United States, featured the address of Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, delivered here at a large gathering presided over by the Lord Mayor of London.

Sir Robert declared it was evident Canada now held an extraordinary position of vantage, compared with even half a century ago. Britain regarded Canada with the pride of a mother over her first-born.

Canada, said the speaker, would perform her function of interpreter between the two nations, not of set purpose, but by simply being true to herself and living her own life. Even more important than that was the function which Canada might perform in interpreting to the United States the character of the British commonwealth.

Wheat Carry Over Smaller

World Supply Is Sufficient Until New Crop Is Marketed

Washington.—Indications of a smaller world wheat carry over on July 1 were published by the department of agriculture. The carry over was estimated at 125,000,000 bushels as compared with 233,000,000 bushels July 1 last year, and 356,000,000 bushels July 1, 1923.
